Make one last Grape Escape with the girls on a Champagne Hen Weekend

Blushing brides-to-be looking to make one last Grape Escape with the girls before the big day can crack open the bubbly on a Champagne-tasting hen weekend with specialist operator Grape Escapes.

Based in the heritage city of Reims, the weekend blends tastings at some of the region's most prestigious Champagne Houses and tours of their vast underground wine cellars with gourmet cuisine at top local restaurants, and time celebrating in the chic bars and clubs of the city sampling yet more of area's finest fizz.

Adventurous hens can even abseil 100ft into wine cellars and learn the Napoleonic art of Sabrage – uncorking a bottle of bubbly with a sword!

During the weekend, the bride can also purchase her favourite Champagne for the wedding, or a special treat for the honeymoon and have the bottles personalised with the couple's names, ready to toast the happy couple.

Grape Escapes can tailor make the perfect Hen Weekend to match the group's budget from £195pp to in excess of £500pp arranging transportation from the UK either by ferry or rail from London rail or can onward transport from Paris airport if arriving by air.
